Bill Passes Second Reading And Goes to Banking and Commerce Committee

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—Shortly before midnight Hon. W. T. White's bill to Send the bank act was given a second reading and referred to the committee on banking and commerce, where its details will be considered. Throughout the afternoon and evening the discussion was confined en-ely to Liberal speakers, but was cluded with a speech from Mr.

White, in which he dealt with a number of the suggestions made. While one were rejected, others received a promise of further consideration.

The debate was resumed when the House met by Hon. H. R. Emmerson, who saw much danger in the fact that twenty-three men in Canada control the transportation, financial and industrial interests. He saw further any paragraph of the bill the atmosphere of menace. Several West-speakers, including J. G. Turritt, Warnock, Levi Thompson, W. A. Chanahan and Dr. Michael Clark, alized the bill and emphasized the stability of the Western people as given an opportunity to get money at lower rates of interest. They advocated a government system of inspection. Mr. Fred Pardee, chief by the speaker. He reminded the so that audit proposal of Mr. Filding had been dropped in 1891, in the act was revised, and that years later Mr. Filding had renewed the idea of government inspection.

Rejects McLean's Proposals.

Mr. White rejected the proposal of Mr. MacLean that a great national bank should be established. He also rejected Mr. MacLean's suggestion that there should be a large issue of union notes based on a 25 per gold reserve. "It would be good," he said. Dealing with the actions that liens given by farmers to the banks under the new provisions of the bank act should be regulated.

Mr. White said it was doubtful proper machinery exists in all provinces for such registration. It was a matter for the committee to look into.

HUSTLE DAY AND NIGHT AT WALTERDALE BRIDGE

Stunning Gravel and Laying Water Concrete, Paving Mill Into Cor-for, Dams and Laying Pipes for Nucleus to Protect Foundations of Hive Vises.

The contractors of the new low level bridge being built across the Saskatchewan from Fifth street to Waverdale, do not wish, spring there to come in a hurry. From now on they will hustle day and night in their task to complete the construction of their concrete piers before the ice goes out of the river.

The concrete work has already started at the abutment on the north shore. Excavation has been begun at the one on the south shore. Two piers will be constructed in the stream.

The coffer dams are now being constructed. The big centrifugal pump is already in position and ready connected to an ordinary charging line, so that when the coffer dam has been made water-tight the water may be pumped out of the interior. After the ice and water are removed the excavations will be made into a solid bottom secured. Then the concrete work will begin and the solid pier will be built to above water level before the ice goes out. Whether the spring is to be late or early, the pier must be above the water level if it is to be possible for hauling men to do it.

Ice from Three to Seven Feet Thick.
When the coffer dam is a hole is constructed the workmen are set to cut a series of holes in the ice at the position marked by the surveyors. In some places the ice is very thick and varies from three to seven feet in ice to seven feet, where the floating ice had piled up elsewhere. The river froze in the fall. At the south pier the water in places is quite shallow even measured by less than two feet, but at the north pier there is said to be about five feet of water under the four feet of ice.

After the holes are cut, the big pile-driver pounds the pile driven into the ice and water into the bed of the river. It is a better pile-driver than used long ago and to the help of the Hudson's Bay company factor in his efforts to build a stockade of fur trading stations, who used to have to ford or swim the river in the days before there was even a ferry to cross.

Stockade Keeps Out Hostile Water.
About six feet apart in a double row like a double stockade these piles are driven solid. Then a double wall of thick plank and grooved timbers are secured to the piles with iron bolts. These timbers are also panned tight to the rock the bottom. Next comes a piling job. Earth is filled into the space between the walls and pounded by men with rammers. At the wall of piles, timber and earth is sufficiently water-tight to keep out the water of the Saskatchewan. Then the big centrifugal pump with its 8-inch intake and 12-inch discharge is set to work to pump out the water from the cellar-like interior of the stockade.

The piles are not all driven for the southern pier, but for the northern one is now nearly rammed hand in with the wall of the north pier. The thick wall will have to be shoveled out and the water pumped out of the cellar.

Steam Hauls.
Huge loads of gravel are being stored ready for the concrete mixer. The frozen gravel is hauled from the shore being thawed by a jet of steam from a nozzle. This steam warms the gravel. Warm water and a sufficient quantity of cement are the ingredients which make the hopper of the big revolving mixer. When all is just right the mixer is tipped and the warm concrete falls down a chute to the depth of the excavation to make the foundation of the pier or abutment upon which will stand the low level bridge.

The top of the space excavated for the abutment has been covered over with canvas and a stove is used to keep the concrete warm till it sets.

"OUTCAST" IN COLLEGE.

The dramatic play in four acts, entitled "The Outcast," will be given by the debating society of St. Anthony's church. The college institute assembly held tonight (Friday), January 31st. The certain will rise at 8 p.m. The society have come to considerable trouble in the preparation of the entertainment. The local amateur actors are reported to have shown much talent at their rehearsals. The plot of the play is said to be interesting. The object of the society is to raise money for their piano fund. The patrons coming from the north side will get off the car at the White Avenue post office and walk two blocks north to the college.

ENJOYABLE RECEPTION.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mackell, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mackell, on the occasion being the twenty-first year of their marriage. There were present twenty-two guests, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Mackell, Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Upjohn, and Miss Upjohn; Messrs. O. Wickham, J. Peters, J. Gaudin, R. F. Turner, N. Lovatt, A. Jensen and G. A. Blatter. Misses G. Mackell, J. Collette, and J. Mackell. The evening was very good and everybody was very glad and enjoyed the evening. The piano fund was raised $100.00. The patrons coming from the north side will get off the car at the White Avenue post office and walk two blocks north to the college.

NEWBOY'S SUGGESTION.

The little newboy was delivered by a doctor at 3111 Creek street and he remarks when waiting for his car. "They say that our car does not pay but if a little sheller was put up for the money to wait in, then they would not get out of the car and on." When Phillip is a man he may be an actor and actorman.

HURRY HIGH AND HURRY LOW.

There is and there will be a hurry at both high and low level bridges now being constructed to the southwest and the southeast of the old Hudson's Bay company fort. The contractors at the low level will be hurrying in their anxiety to construct their concrete piers to water level before spring. The steel trusses are now hurrying on their third leg again. They too, will be anxious to get all their riveting done so that the false work now resting on pillars may be removed before the ice break-up comes in the spring. There is now a fine track of piles and false work under the high level bridge for drifting ice cakes three and four feet thick. The false work for the next and last span will rest upon the northern shore and will be ready shortly as the season is a steep, sloping cliff.

When the snow is laid and the warm spring weather has come again the contractors will be busy with the work of laying the concrete pavement of the traffic deck of the high level bridge. Then they, too, will hurry, we agree with him.

Sure enough, there is one store in Edmonton that does not sell morning papers or railroad tickets; but it sells almost every good thing that a human being wants, and the past week has fully demonstrated to us that the Edmonton women are realizing what this change here means.

DEMOCRATS SECURE CONTROL OF SENATE

Salisbury Elected Senator From Delaware, Which Gives the Party a Safe Majority For Tariff and Legislative Action.

Washington, Jan. 30.—With the election yesterday of Willard Salisbury as United States senator from Delaware, the Democratic strength in the next senate swung from the precarious figure of 46 or exactly one-half of the senate, to the safer total of 49, a majority of two.

Mr. Salisbury's election, added to the victory recently secured in Tennessee, guarantees the Democratic party absolute control of the senate after March 4th. The vote of Vice-President Marshall would have been the deciding factor in any event, but the addition of Salisbury will give the party the column gives the party leaders what they believe to be a safe margin for tariff and legislative action.

Contests still exist in the legislative body of New Hampshire, where Illinois, with a total of four senators to be elected about whose political affiliations are now in question. The victory in any one of these states would so materially strengthen the Democratic party that the senate would completely be removed from the element of question.

Of the entire membership of 80 senators, 49 will hold over beyond March 4th. Of these 32 are Republicans and 32 Democrats. The terms of 22 senators expire in March, and there is, in addition, one vacancy in Illinois. Thus far 17 Democratic senators have been elected, and the election of Senator Blaine of Georgia in certain, making 34 Democrats. The late of the office on March 4th.

Council of Women Consider The Housing Evil Question

Annual Conclude of Women's Organisation in Session—Rents Charged for Apartments Severely Criticized—Medical Inspection of Immigrants Declared Inadequate.

One of the features of the opening year of the annual meeting of the Local Council of Women, held at the Y.M.C.A. yesterday, was reading of a letter from the president, Mrs. C. A. Latornei, written to her by Mr. W. R. B. Armstrong, president of the Y.M.C.A. of Montreal, in which he stated that the Y.M.C.A. of Montreal was taking action to secure the medical inspection of immigrants to their own satisfaction.

It was moved by Mrs. Latornei, and seconded by Mrs. May, vice-president of the United, that all presidents and executives attach themselves to the petition, which motion carried. The Y.M.C.A. of Montreal is estimated to have an annual expense through bad housing in the city of $15,000,000.

Introducing the motion, Mrs. Latornei stated that she had been informed by the Y.M.C.A. of Montreal that they were planning to build a series of two-story houses in the city of Montreal, the plan of which provided for two rooms, bath, kitchen, and bathroom, to draw a rental of $15 a month.

Mrs. Latornei made an excellent speech in which she pointed out the need for such a plan in the city of Montreal, and the need for such a plan in the city of Edmonton.

On his recent trip east, Mr. R. H. Chadwick, superintendent of the city of Edmonton, reported that he had seen a number of the houses in the city of Montreal, and that they were very well built and very comfortable.
